Dear Classmates,

Welcome back home to the Yard and happy 25th! The words of our alma mater’s song seem especially appropriate for us all, 25 years on and looking forward together:

*First flow’r of their wilderness! Star of their night!
Calm rising through change and through storm...
To thy children the lesson still give,
With freedom to think, and with patience to bear,
And for right ever bravely to live.
Let not moss-covered error moor thee at its side,
As the world on truth’s current glides by,
Be the herald of light, and the bearer of love...*

We’re so grateful to have you here, to have this weekend together, and to look forward to all that awaits us in these friendships and in our lives after Reunion too.

Our deepest thanks to the members of the reunion program committee, who have prepared a spectacular program for you. They are listed on page 2 and will also be wearing identifying name badges. And special thanks to Kailey Walsh and Andrew Vincent of the Harvard Alumni Association, who helped us all get where we are today with this beautiful guide in your hands! This reunion program is all about celebration, inclusion, reflection, re-upping our energies, and gratitude. It balances intellectual stimulation, emotional connection, and simple good times. There is something for everyone, and everything for all of us.

Please make an effort along the way to thank those working with the HAA, as well as the student coordinators, and those who will assist us as bartenders, van drivers, bellhops, etc. They all are here to help—just ask if you need assistance.

To go out with a song, we’ll cherry pick a few more lines from our dear college anthems:

*We join in thy jubilant throng...
Our voices raised as one
You gave us joys and wisdom
To set our goals and values true

From the age that is past,
To the age that is waiting before...*

We’re so glad you’re here and wish you a wonderful reunion experience.

All our best,

4:00–5:15 PM '92 Class Discussion:
Midlife—Grit & Bear It
Sanders Theatre, Memorial Hall

This gathering will be an open circle on grit, vulnerability, and resilience—all the characteristics we have wittingly and unwittingly employed the past 25 years. What would you say to yourself 25 years ago? What have we learned? Because of the success of this event at our 20th, let's kick off the weekend again as such, gathering to talk about what we have done, what it took, and what we thought along the way.

5:15–6:45 PM 1992 Story Slam: "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the 25th..."
Sanders Theatre, Memorial Hall

No notes, no pressure, no expectations! Come gather to hear or share stories about—anything. Bring a story; your name might be picked out of a hat; and then tell a tale in under 3 minutes—what you're thinking about lately, or something that happened in the last 25 years. Everything is on topic: life's adventures, challenges, setbacks, surprises...finding fulfillment in a digitally distracting world, a powerful volunteering experience, medical diagnoses, caretaking of others, losing loved ones, adventures in fertility, parenting (or not), dealing with addiction, depression, engagement or disengagement, developments or struggles or achievements with your identity, career, friendships, or discovering an unexpected joy. You name it—we're all here, and we want to hear it. This is a fun and celebratory welcome back event to share, laugh, sigh, cheer on, and enjoy each other. Note: there will be applause.

7:00 PM–MIDNIGHT Everybody Dance Now! Class of '92 Reunion Celebration with Dinner, Cocktails, and Dancing
Science Center Plaza Tent

Enjoy great food and open bar as you dance the night away to music from an amazing '80s music cover band, Scattershot, with a possible special music surprise, courtesy of Thomas M. Lauderdale!

9:30–11:30 AM '92 World Challenges—A Lesson Learned and Action Moving Forward
Sanders Theater, Memorial Hall

This is the dynamic, superbly intellectual bit of our Reunion—hearing about what's happening in fundamental areas of life and how we might be able to apply ideas (and ideals) to reality. Classmates in different sectors—education; media; rights; government; impact investing; our earth—will pose a concrete challenge they face in their fields, and suggest a possible solution. This session is provocative discussion time!

9:30 AM–8:00 PM Shuttle buses available to the Radcliffe Quad.
Shuttles run a continuous loop from 1 Oxford Street (adjacent to the Science Center) to the Radcliffe Quad.

NOON–3:00 PM Field Day, Barbeque, and Take 5 for Public Service
With fun for classmates and kiddies too—bring the whole family!
Radcliffe Quadrangle

Hang out with classmates and their families. Visit our public service table to learn about classmates’ passions in the nonprofit sector. Take 5 minutes to write “cards for a cause”—postcards that you can write to the cause of your choice.

Note that for children participating in the Saturday daytime program, supervision will not be provided at Field Day. Parents are responsible for picking up their children at headquarters, accompanying them to the Field Day activities, and returning them to headquarters when the event is over.

Join us for a festive sendoff to the Reunion and the promise of great memories still to come.

The phone in your room on campus will be able to dial on-campus numbers only. Phones in headquarters and House offices should be used for outgoing calls in emergencies only; the lines should be available for incoming calls whenever possible.

A list of classmates attending Reunion is in your registration packet and at headquarters. Cell phone numbers have been included on that list when available.

Headquarters closes at noon on Sunday, May 28, at which time you should be fully checked out of your room, and all personal belongings should be collected. Bellhops will be on hand at headquarters all week to assist you with moving into and out of your rooms. As you leave, please lock your door and drop off your keys and access cards at headquarters.

As a convenience for those checking out on Sunday, there will be reunion van service available to the 10 Everett Street Garage. Ask at headquarters for a bellhop and driver to assist you.

TICKETS AND NAME BADGES

Reunion

The HAA is piloting an electronic check-in and registration process at 2017 Reunions. This program will eliminate the need for paper tickets at non-Commencement day events. Numerous staff members will be on-site to register and check in alumni and guests at all “ticketed” reunion events. Note that reunion name badges will provide access to the Harvard attractions listed at the end of this program guide.

Commencement

Tickets are required for both Morning Exercises and the Afternoon Program of Commencement and will be available at headquarters on Wednesday and Thursday (May 24 and 25) only. Due to space limitations, only reunion alumni will be issued tickets to the Morning Exercises in Tercentenary Theatre. All persons, bags, and personal items are subject to inspection before entering Harvard Yard. No backpacks of any type will be admitted. No bag or item larger than 12" x 12" x 12" will be permitted inside the Yard. Guests may view the Morning Exercises from the Science Center. Guests are welcome to join alumni for the Afternoon Program. Only members of the Class of 1992 are eligible for Commencement tickets picked up at headquarters during Reunion.

TRANSPORTATION

The influx of family members and guests for Commencement activities makes the campus particularly lively during this time. Mobility in the Yard tends to be constrained. Therefore, attendees are asked to use the reunion shuttle service and bellhops to minimize disruptions to all those enjoying the campus at this busy time.

To view an interactive map of campus locations, please visit map.harvard.edu.

DISABILITIES AND CERTAIN MEDICAL CONDITIONS

Harvard University encourages persons with disabilities to participate in its programs and activities. Accessible parking for reunion guests is available at the Soldiers Field Park Garage on a first-come, first-served basis. Please utilize the designated accessible spaces and display your state-issued disabled parking placard, if you have one. On Commencement Day, wheelchair runner assistance is provided from the gate to the guest’s seat in Tercentenary Theatre. If wheelchair rental is needed during Reunion and you are unable to bring your own, the HAA can provide you with a list of recommended vendors. Additional accessibility-related information can be found at accessibility.harvard.edu. If you have further questions, please call the College Alumni Programs office at 617-496-7001.

MEDICAL SERVICES

Medical services are available at Harvard University Health Services (HUHS) on a fee-for-service basis. Your reunion name badge is your identification for admission to the clinic, which is located in the Smith Campus Center (formerly Holyoke Center), 75 Mount Auburn Street, and can be reached at 617-495-5711. The clinic is open from 8:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. each day throughout reunion week. If you are experiencing a life-threatening concern, call 911 (9-911 from a campus phone) or go to the nearest hospital emergency room. For more information about HUHS, visit huhs.harvard.edu.

SECURITY

The Harvard University Police Department (HUPD) is an important resource if you are lost, locked out of your building, or in need of help of any kind, and should be the first contact for any on-campus incidents. HUPD can be reached with any of the blue-lit emergency telephones in Harvard buildings and in public areas, or by calling 617-495-1212. If you are staying in University housing, ask your bellhop to point out the nearest emergency telephone when you are escorted to your room. Your registration packet includes a room key for access to your room and an electronic access card for access to the building. You should lock your room at all times.

LOST AND FOUND

If you lose or find something, notify the staff at headquarters as soon as possible. Lost items will be kept at headquarters until Sunday, May 28. After that date, contact the College Alumni Programs office at 617-496-7001. After two weeks, all unclaimed articles will be donated to an appropriate charity.

LIABILITY FOR INJURY OR LOSS

Every reasonable precaution is being taken for your safety. At the same time, no individual or committee can or does assume any liability for injury to any person or for loss of, or damage to, property at any time or place during Reunion. If you have any concerns, please inform the staff at headquarters.

AA MEETINGS

There are many AA meetings taking place during reunion week in Cambridge and the Boston area. Visit aaboston.org for locations and times.

GRATUITIES

Students greatly appreciate gratuities for the services they provide throughout reunion week. Gratuities are optional and at your discretion. All tips will be pooled and shared among the students, who work together as a team.

REUNION PHOTOGRAPHS

Panfoto will take group photographs on the steps of Widener Library. You may order prints directly from Panfoto during Reunion; contact them by phone at 781-788-9595 or visit panfoto.com. Prints are available framed or unframed.

ACCOMMODATIONS

UNIVERSITY HOUSING

University housing is available only to registered reunion participants and is a benefit of attending Reunion. Please bear in mind that Harvard's rooms, although quaint and historic, have relatively modest conveniences. For example, in some cases, bathrooms may be shared.

A hospitality room will be provided for commuters who need a place to rest, freshen up, or change clothes. Inquire at your reunion headquarters.

Sharing a Suite

Typically, a housing unit consists of a suite—two rooms, each with two single beds, sharing a bathroom in the middle. Please keep in mind:

- By reserving Harvard housing, you are electing to stay in the same wonderful dorms and Houses from your time as a student.
- Rooms are not equipped with hotel-like amenities, and most restrooms and shower facilities are shared.
- Most bedrooms are housed within a larger suite. Within your suite, you may be housed with people you do not know, but in most circumstances you will have your own private bedroom.
- You and your registered guests are each entitled to your own beds. Please keep in mind these beds may be in different rooms (within a larger suite).
- Barring extreme circumstances, room changes cannot be accommodated during Reunions.
- Almost all beds on campus are in use during Reunions. If there are empty beds in your suite that are not assigned to you, you are not permitted to use them or invite others to do so.

LOST KEYS AND MAINTENANCE

If you lose your keys or have a maintenance problem, please go to the building manager's office in your House for assistance. If no one is present in your building manager's office, especially during overnight hours, you may seek assistance at the Boylston Gate of Harvard Yard, which is staffed 24 hours a day. If you are locked out of your room or dorm, you may also contact HUPD at 617-495-1212. Additionally, headquarters staff will be helpful in addressing any problem.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAM

HEADQUARTERS

The main headquarters for the Children's Program is located at Phillips Brooks House, where staff will be on duty daily from 8:00 a.m. (7:00 a.m. on Commencement Day) until midnight. A full schedule of Children's Program activities is included in the check-in package. Please check each group's schedule carefully; on Thursday and Friday some groups leave at 8:30 a.m., and it is not possible to rejoin the group until it returns at 5:00 p.m. While the student staff and directors are well trained and experienced, they need your cooperation to ensure that the programs run safely and smoothly. Please inform your child's student staff member or group director if your child will not attend a scheduled activity so that the group does not wait unnecessarily. You may also call headquarters at 617-879-8885 and inform the student on duty.

EVENING PROGRAM

Two Headquarters: Malkin Athletic Center & Hemenway Gymnasium

The Evening Program runs from 6:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. There will be two on-campus locations for two different age groups: The MAC gym is the location for children 3–8 years, and the Hemenway Gym is the location for children 9–17 years. At each headquarters, snacks will be provided, and there will be a variety of activities, including games, puzzles, and quiet activities. Mats will also be provided for children to rest comfortably.

On Saturday evening, children ages nine and up will attend the Boston Pops performance with their respective groups. For those under age nine, evening care will be provided on campus.
